

BFI EDIT

2 FEBRUARY 2018

PROGRAMME

WELCOME TO BFI EDIT

Your chance to sample the best of our upcoming programme with season taster sessions, flash talks and a chance to meet the programmers and curators. Discover and rediscover the best in moving image on screen and around the venue.

FOYER

19:30-21:00

Get up close and personal with the BFI National Archive.

21:00-22:00

Put your knowledge of the small screen to the test in the fabled BFI Tv Quiz.

ALL EVENING

Screenings of Jen Nkiru's Rebirth is Necessary and Daniel Elm's BFI and PRSF commission Bethia.

NFT3

20:20

INTRO TO BERGMAN

Dive into our landmark Ingmar Bergman season with an insightful session presented by our inspirational Future Film programmers.

21:00

GIRLFRIENDS

From Romy and Michelle to Nine to Five, celebrate the joys and complexities of female friendships on screen in our Girlfriends season.

21:40

WORKING CLASS HEROES

Working Class Heroes is a weekend of conversation and live events to celebrate working class film talent, past, present and future - 13 & 14 April.

STUDIO

20:20

PROJECTING THE ARCHIVE

Find out more about the BFI's film archive and meet Renée Galler Glynne, who will share her memories of over 60 years in the industry.

20:45

FUTURE FILM FESTIVAL

The UK's most important film industry festival for young, emerging filmmakers is back - join the team to find out about what is in store and meet a future filmmaker, 15-18 February.

21:10

CHINESE VISUAL FESTIVAL

Looking ahead to our annual partnership with Chinese Visual Festival, bringing the very best in cinema and art of the Chinese speaking world to the UK.

21:35

WOMAN WITH A MOVIE CAMERA

Our monthly strand celebrating the representation of women and the achievements of women who work in film.

MEDIATHEQUE

Whether you're a researcher, film enthusiast or simply nostalgic for the telly of your childhood, the BFI Mediatheque is a unique place to come, watch and discover wonderfully curated treasures of British film and TV history.

MEZZANINE EXHIBITION

The artwork behind some classics of British animation are showcased in our new exhibition from the BFI National Archive special collections.

BFI BAR & KITCHEN

Relax in the BFI Bar & Kitchen to Swedish tunes spun by our Bergman DJs.

BFI.ORG.UK