THE BFI MEDIA CONFERENCE

2 – 3 July 2015

bfi.org.uk/education

The BFI Media Conference is a unique professional development event for UK teachers of film and media at 14+ and 18+ to meet, learn and be inspired.

We are delighted to welcome speakers from across the film and TV industries and related platforms, as well as from teaching and academic research. Their creative approaches, innovative ideas and successful projects come together in an exciting programme of presentations, workshops and discussions.

The programme is flexible, for you to choose Industry, Teaching and Research sessions based on your experience and needs.

All delegates are also warmly invited to attend the plenary sessions, networking drinks and film screenings.

Conference Programmer: Corinna Downing

Developing world class talent

The conference plenary sessions are supported by Creative Skillset's Film Skills Fund.

SPECIAL EVENTS

PLENARY SESSIONS

Sharing their perspectives on the current UK film and television industries and visions for the future, the conference offers a plenary session each day featuring leading industry figures.

FILM PLENARY

RACHAEL PRIOR

Rachael has been Head of Development at Big Talk Pictures since 2009, after twelve years as Development Executive at Working Title. She has built a slate of films with Film4 and Studiocanal, including Sightseers, In Fear and Man Up. Upcoming projects include Baby Driver and Section 6.

BEN ROBERTS

Ben is Director of the BFI Film Fund, the UK's largest public film fund, overseeing wide-ranging support for talent development, feature film development and production, and international activity. Before the BFI, Ben was with Protagonist Pictures, Universal Pictures International and Metrodome Distribution.

POLLY STOKES

Polly is a Senior Development Editor at Film4. She started her career in theatre before moving over to film as a producer for companies including Warp Films. She edits across the Film4 slate, working on projects from initial research through to post-production.

TV PLENARY

WILL SAUNDERS

Will is Creative Director, Digital, for BBC TV Production, Editorial lead for BBC Taster and manager of the Digital Innovation Unit. For Comedy at the BBC he produced shows including Graham Norton and Flight of the Conchords, and set up an online team to nurture new talent which generated 50+ million views on YouTube.

SPECIAL SCREENING

THE FALLING

Carol Morley is a director, screenwriter and producer. The Falling is her latest absorbing and distinctive feature as writer/director, part black comedy and part psychological drama about a mysterious outbreak of fainting at a girls' school in the 1960s. We are delighted to welcome Carol to the conference for a Q&A after the screening.
