47 Meters Down

Cast: Vanessa Kirby
Genre: Thriller
Director: Johannes Roberts
Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis: Twenty-something sisters Kate and Lisa are gorgeous, fun loving and ready for the holiday of a lifetime in Mexico. When the opportunity to go cage diving to view Great White sharks presents itself, thrill-seeking Kate jumps at the chance while Lisa takes some convincing. After some not so gentle persuading, Lisa finally agrees and the girls soon find themselves two hours off the coast of Huatulco and about to come face to face with nature's fiercest predator. But what should have been the trip to end all trips soon becomes a living nightmare when the shark cage breaks free from their boat, sinks and they find themselves trapped at the bottom of the ocean. With less than an hour of oxygen left in their tanks, they must somehow work out how to get back to the boat above them through 47 meters of shark-infested waters.

Amar Akbar & Tony

Cast: Karen David, Laura Aikman, Martin Delaney, Rez Kempton, Sam Vincenti

Genre: Comedy
Director: Atul Malhotra
Status: Completed

Synopsis: A stylish and realistic, feel good comedy drama set in present-day London. Amar, Akbar & Tony follows the lives and loves of three childhood friends through twists and turns as the characters face sudden and unforeseen changes to their idealistic and trouble-free young lives. With hilarious and sometimes tragic consequences, the brotherly bond shared by the trio is forced to come to terms with some unexpected challenges. Amar, a Sikh, is a man of honour. Akbar, a Muslim, is the charmer out of the trio. And Tony, the Irish 'honourary Asian', is obsessed with trying to bag himself an Asian girlfriend. Their lives intertwine with Samantha a budding actress, the beautiful yet unreachable Nita, and the stunningly mysterious Meera in a charming and witty ensemble piece. Interracial marriage, near fatal accidents and stints in prison will test old friendships and family values. A coming of age comedy drama showing the absurdities of life can also be the most amusing.

Synopsis: Oskari, a timid 13-year-old, anxiously awaits his fate. Tradition dictates that like his forefathers before him, the boy's time has come to spend one day and one night alone in the wilderness. Armed with only a bow and arrow, he must return with a prize to prove himself to be a man. Terrified and alone, he wanders through a vast and unforgiving forest when suddenly he hears a deafening rumbling sound. Racing to investigate, Oskari discovers an escape pod. Not just any escape pod - this pod belongs to Air Force One and the battered and bruised man lying before him is the President of the United States! In the skies above, terrorists are hurtling their way to the crash site hell-bent on kidnapping the President. Now the fate of the most powerful man in the world lies in the hands of a 13-year-old-boy. Plunged into a deadly game of cat and mouse with only hours to spare, Oskari and the President must team up to survive the most extraordinary night of their lives.

Brooklyn

Cast: Domhnall Gleeson, Emory Cohen, Jim Broadbent, Julie Walters, Saoirse Ronan
Genre: Drama
Director: John Crowley
Status: Production

Synopsis: All Eilis has to look forward to if she stays in 1950s Ireland are slick-haired rugby players, selling cigarettes one at a time at the local shop, and bad weather. So when a kindly priest, Father Flood, sponsors her to go to America, she packs her meagre belongings, says goodbye to her mother and her sister, Rose, and hello to... Brooklyn, which with its bright lights, brownstones and brash confidence is a shock for timid Eilis. Seasickness from the treacherous journey to Ellis Island transforms into homesickness as she gets to Mrs. Kehoe's daunting lodging house, full of gossiping single girls. Eilis gets a job at a glamorous department store and through a sweet young plumber called Tony she has all kinds of new experiences: the Yankees, Coney Island, proper spaghetti sauce...and love. A tragedy in the family forces her to return to Ireland, but she marries Tony in secret before she goes. Once home, everyone is struck by Eilis' 'new world' sophistication. She finds comfort in the company of her old friends, and one new one: a young charmer called Jim, who encouraged by Eilis' mother, starts to woo her. Before long, Eilis must confront a terrible dilemma -- a heart-breaking choice between two men and two countries; between duty and true love.

Synopsis: The drivers line up on the grid; engines that have taken a year of patient invention and testing are revving to red. In the pit lanes stand mechanics, eyes focused on TV monitors, crossing their hearts that the cars will hold out. Team managers shout last instructions into head-sets. In the stands are fans and family; wives and girlfriends offer up a prayer for victory, but above all for the safety of their men. Time freezes for a moment. Then, the light goes green... and THEY ARE OFF! The lead drivers in the top class of Endurance car, head at break-neck speed towards the first corner of the Le Mans 24 hour race; the most grueling and celebrated global motor racing event. This is a place where dreams are made, and broken. It is a place of almost religious intensity for the drivers, engineers, marshalls and tens of thousands of spectators that are here to witness the 91st edition of the most glorious of all races. Shot in blistering state-of-the art 3-D, this film tells the story of this race and of the men who compete in it. For 24 hours, and also in the months and weeks leading up to the race, we'll get to know what makes these men tick and what gives them the sheer guts to race the 24 hours of Le Mans.

Synopsis: A country estate in Ireland in the 1880s. Over the course of one midsummer night, in an atmosphere of wild revelry and loosened social constraints, Miss Julie and John, her father's valet, dance and drink, charm and manipulate each other. She, all hauteur longing for abasement; he, polished but coarse - both united in mutual loathing and attraction. By turns seductive and bullying, savage and tender, their intimacy leads to desperate plans and a vision of a life together... Unsure if the morning brings hope or hopelessness, Julie and John find their escape in a final act as sublime and horrific as anything in Greek tragedy. MISS JULIE depicts a fierce battle between a man and a woman, a struggle for power and dominance enacted through a cruel and compulsive game of seduction and repulsion.

Mr. Turner (Special Presentation)

Cast: Timothy Spall

Genre: Drama

Director: Mike Leigh

Status: Completed

Synopsis: Seven-time Academy Award® nominated and multiple BAFTA winning writer/director Mike Leigh (Another Year, Vera Drake, Secrets & Lies), bases his new film on the renowned British painter J.M.W. Turner, portrayed by legendary British actor Timothy Spall (Harry Potter, Secrets & Lies). The production includes frequent Leigh collaborators, including Academy Award® nominated cinematographer Dick Pope (Vera Drake, Secrets & Lies, The Illusionist) and Academy Award®-winning costume designer Jacqueline Durran (Another Year, Anna Karenina, Atonement). Leigh works in close collaboration with his actors, using his unique methods of improvisation to bring Turner and his 19th century world to life. Famous for his incredible use of light and colour, Turner was a pioneering and controversial figure in his day, but has since become one of the most celebrated artists in British history. Mike Leigh said: "Turner as a character is compelling. I want to explore the man, his working life, his relationships and how he lived. But what fascinates me most is the drama that lies in the tension between this driven eccentric and the epic, timeless world he evoked in his masterpieces."

Genre: Science-fiction

Director: Darren Paul Fisher

Status: Completed

Synopsis: In a world that is not quite here and not quite now, a young boy (Isaac-Newton) and girl (Marie-Curie) meet. However, in this world this simple fact should not be possible. In this world human FREQUENCY has been discovered. If you are high frequency, you are born lucky - you will have natural 'timing' and always be in the right place at the right time. If you are low frequency every natural law will conspire against you. Marie is super-high frequency, Zak is ultra-low. Nature should ensure that they never cross paths. Yet they do. Every year they get to spend exactly one minute together before nature dramatically intervenes. Over the years it becomes an obsession for Zak to change his frequency and be with Marie. What he discovers may allow him to realize his dream, but will change everything we know about ourselves and our destinies, forever.

Synopsis: 'Lock Stock And Two Smoking Barrels' meets 'The Hangover' in the outrageous action comedy REDIRECTED, starring Hollywood hard-man Vinnie Jones. Four friends turned first-time robbers thought they'd planned the perfect crime: steal £1 million from an illegal casino, catch a plane to Malaysia, and get lost in emerald jungles, golden beaches, and cheap alcohol. And it worked. Almost. They left the casino with the cash and boarded that plane, but before they got to Malaysia, a volcanic eruption in Iceland redirected their flight to a Post-Soviet Eastern European country they'd never head of, with a name they couldn't pronounce. Now, if they're ever going to find paradise, they're going to have to fight their way out, past the never ending stream of gangsters, dodgy locals and dirty cops - as well as the London mobsters they ripped off in the first place, who are now hot on their heels and in no mood for negotiation! With twists at every turn, and plenty of violence throughout, REDIRECTED is an hilarious, cross-cultural action comedy that will have you howling with laughter from the opening frame. The Riot Club (Gala Presentation)

Cast: Douglas Booth, Max Irons, Sam Claflin
Genre: Drama
Director: Lone Scherfig
Status: Post-Production

Synopsis: The dreaming spires of Oxford University, where Bentleys are driven into rivers and champagne is guzzled like water. The hottest invitation is to the Riot Club; a world where the bright, privileged and wealthy take their first steps in becoming the future masters of the universe. Miles and Alistair are in their first year: both dazzlingly clever and offspring of pillars of the Establishment. Alistair, pressured by a family legacy of social success, is ruthlessly determined to become a member of this exclusive club. Miles has been seduced by the social kudos of the invitation, but his heart isn't in it. On a debauched and decadent night out, the club's leaders invite them both to see if they've got what it takes to belong. Their personal rivalry and jealousy ignite an evening where verbal pyrotechnics and vaulting ambition reign and eventually the wolf pack turn on one of their own. In the same vein as The Social Network, The Riot Club exposes the insecurities and viciousness of the young elite.
