APPLY TO BE A YOUNG JUROR!

What is it?

- Young juries of 12-14s year olds in 46 countries all over the world meet in cinemas on Sunday 6 May to watch the same 3 new European films.
- Every jury scores each film and decides which film is their country's winner.
- In the evening the results of every country are announced at the live-streamed awards ceremony in Germany. One film is announced as the winner of the 'European Film Academy Young Audience Award 2018'.

It's free to take part! 3 things you need to do in advance:

- Answer the 2 questions about films you've watched on the next page – we'd like to get a little idea about what you like and what interests you.
- Ask your parents to sign the YAA Letter of Agreement and return it and your answers to us by email or post by Friday 27 April.
- Find out more about the 3 nominated films and lots more about the awards at http://yaa.europeanfilmawards.eu/en_EN/yaa-2018
- Let us know if you'd like to represent the London jury and present the London jury's scores. We need 2 jurors for this, who will need to send us a head shot photo and some info about themselves. The deadline for these 2 jurors is earlier: Weds 18 April

On Sunday 6 May:

- Arrive at BFI Southbank at 9.30am with a packed lunch. We'll provide snacks!
- We'll start with an introduction to the day and all get to know each other.
- In between watching the films we'll have the chance to connect with other young juries across the world.
- We'll finish at 6pm.

Please send us your answers and the EFA YAA Consent form (back page) by Friday 27 April to education@bfi.org.uk or Education, BFI Southbank, Belvedere Road, London SE1 8XT

THREE NOMINATED FILMS

GIRL IN FLIGHT / LA FUGA

From Italy

Directed by Sandra Vannucchi

Silvia is 11 and lives with her mum and dad. Both of them are busy with their own thoughts and worries and Silvia feels like they never have time for her, or the long-promised trip to Rome. One day she decides she's had enough and sets off for the station alone. On the train to the city she is lucky enough to meet the similarly headstrong Emina, a 13-yr-old Roma girl.

HOBBYHORSE REVOLUTION

From Finland

Directed by Selma Vilhunen

A documentary about the power of the imagination and the strength of a community of like-minded friends! Now a global activity for children and teens, hobby horsing is online in blogs and forums, practiced in streets and parks, and brings fans together in tense and demanding competitions. We follow 3 different girls, Aisku, Elsa and Alisa.

WALLAY

From France / Burkina Faso / Qatar

Directed by Berni Goldblat

Ady is 13 and often in trouble, but he can't believe it when his father tells him that he's going to pack him off to his grandfather's home in Burkina Faso. Ady hates every bit of it and hangs on to his headphones, rap and expensive trainers despite now living in a remote village. There is definitely nothing that anyone can do or say to get through to him...

TWO QUESTIONS FOR JURORS

1. We are looking for jurors who like watching different kinds of films. Can you give us the names of 3 different films which you have liked, and one sentence about each to say why you liked it? The films can be old, new, animated, comedy, adventure, documentary...

2. The films we'll watch are from Italy, Finland and France / Burkina Faso; they are all subtitled. They're about young people's lives, a mix of fun and more serious subjects. Have you watched a film about a serious issue for young person before – what was it about? What did you think of it? If you haven't seen one, please just leave this box empty.
